

The Challenge of Prayer: Does It Have To Be So Hard?

A life of prayer can sometimes seem like an endless uphill climb.

Sound familiar?

Spend a day learning how to read Scripture prayerfully.

Lectio Divina is a four step process everyone can learn and personally use to encounter Christ.

One person using this approach to Scripture reflects:

"Until I discovered lectio divina, my daily practice of prayer took twice as much effort.

Now, for many years, I look forward to the time for prayer, and experience not only a greater facility in praying but much greater liberty of spirit."

Treat yourself to a day of quietly encountering Christ.

Date Friday, March 9, 2012
Place Franciscan Life Process Center
Grand Rapids Campus (3rd floor)
640 5th Street NW, Grand Rapids, MI 49504
Time 9:30 - 2:00 p.m.
Speaker Sister Sarah Doser, FSE

The day includes presentations, opportunities to experience this way of prayer both as an individual and as a group, handouts, and discussions.

Please bring a Bible and a bag lunch (beverages and dessert will be supplied).

Names (First) _____ (Last) _____

Contact Information _____ e-mail _____ phone # _____

Address _____
Street, box #, apartment number City State zip code

Suggested donation $ 40 Check payable to Franciscan Life Process Center. Deadline: Mar. 7 (Wed.)
Reservations: call (616) 897-7842, e-mail registrar@lifeprocesscenter.org or mail check and form to

Franciscan Life Process Center 11650 Downes St. NE Lowell, MI 49331

